RECRUITS TO PLAY AGAINST WHITE SOX IN GAME TODAY

Walter Johnson to Be Supported by Line-up Which Shut Out Browns—Faber or Russell May Oppose.

BY J. ED GRILLO.

The same line-up which was used in shutting out the Browns yesterday will in all probability be pitted against the White Sox today, with the exception of Acosta, whose place in center may be taken by Milan, who is expected to have recovered from his cold.

It also is likely that Williams will be behind the plate to handle the delivery of Johnson.

Manager Rowland this morning said he was undecided as to whether he would work Rob Russell or Faber today, but one or the other is sure to go.

George Dumont cost the Washington club exactly $100. It seems Joe Cantillon had an option on the pick of the Fargo club for $100. When Dumont began to show some real ability up in that league Cantillon offered the option to Griffith, who accepted, and he has been called a really good pitcher for a small expenditure.

There was something remarkable about the showing of Judge and Jamison yesterday when the fact is taken into consideration that the two youngsters did not arrive at the ball park until five minutes after 3 o'clock, were run into uniforms and then went into the game without having as much as swung a bat.

Both Judge and Jamison made good impressions. Judge played first and displayed ability in the field and at the bat. Jamison in left accepted all the chances offered him and got one hit which proved very timely, while he hit the ball hard on two other occasions.

Both Judge and Jamison have speed and displayed a hustling spirit, which pleased. Both of the new men were stockily built, not being over five feet eight or nine inches in height. It is the fact that he is not tall that may handicap Judge in handling power throws at first base.

George Dumont is rapidly establishing himself as one of the pitching finds of the season. It is questionable whether there is another instance where a young pitcher coming into fast company from a remote minor league has shut out two major league teams in successive games and allowed them each but two hits. Up to the ninth inning yesterday the Browns had but one safe hit off of Dumont, and that was a scratchy variety, while but one ball was hit hard during that period, a line drive to left by Jacobson, a pinch hitter, which Jamison caught.

In the ninth Shotton singled, and a poor throw by Foster and Slater being hit by Pratt, however, hit to McBride, and a double play resulted.

Carl Sawyer sprung a genuine surprise yesterday when he proved himself an un-suspected comedian. Ever since Sawyer joined the team he has been a decidedly quiet individual. But yesterday he was sent to the first base coaching lines, and to the surprise of his teammates and the spectators he gave a really good show, which included all sorts of circus stunts which would have made Arlie Latham take a back seat.

Sawyer succeeded in his antics in getting Sothern's mind off of his pitching, and as a result three runs were scored in the third inning.

Sawyer's imitation of a lurching broncho and his diving act were decidedly amusing.

Since August 31 the Nationals have won seventeen of their twenty-one games, a showing which no other team in the American League has equaled this season. Because of the defeat of the White Sox yesterday the Rowland forces now are but three and a half games in front of the Griffins.

With Johnson slated to pitch today and Gallia tomorrow, these twirlers will but have to show the same form they have of late to win the series, and it would not be surprising if they made a clean sweep of it. The locals have not lost a series since their last stay in St. Louis.

Johnson has been scored on but twice in the last four games he has pitched, and had been in a tight place in the game in which he beat St. Louis he would have had a clean record for four consecutive games, but with an eight-run lead in the ninth Walter loafed, and the Browns scored a couple of runs.

The big fellow is in his best form now and it is not likely that the Sox will be able to beat him.

Sam Mayer will be returned to the Kansas City American Association club. The player was notified to this effect yesterday. Before Griffith signed Mayer he had agreed to pay George Tebeau, third baseman of the Kansas City club, $2,500 by October 1 if he kept Mayer. After looking Mayer over in six or seven games Griffith concluded he was not worth this amount of money and sent him back to Tebeau. Mayer may in due time make a good ball player, but he is not ready just yet, and as Griffith will have an abundance of material to look over he figured he could spare Mayer.

What helps Dumont a whole lot in his pitching is the fact that he is a good ball player. In addition to his pitching ability, the youngster not only can field his position and is an expert at covering first base, but he takes a nice wallop at the ball and picks good ones to hit. Yesterday he singled the first time up, then made a neat sacrifice, walked in the sixth and was retired at first base on his final trip to the plate.

Pitchers who are not helpless at the plate are of special value to a team and Dumont not only shows ability there, but, as said before, is a real clever player in his position.

Clyde Milan was suffering from a severe cold yesterday, and he took his place in center field. It is more than likely that "Zeb" will be back in his position today.

Both Judge and Jamison were signed by Manager Griffith at the time that he made the deal for them at Buffalo. They are now under contract to the Washington club for the remainder of this season and the season of 1916.

Ed Handiboe, who umpired in the International League this season, is back home. Handiboe naturally was very much interested in Judge and Jamison after he learned that they had been sold to Washington, his home, and he spoke highly of both recruits that Griffith has secured.

"I believe that Jamison and Judge will make good with Griffith. They are both good hitters and fast on their feet. Jamison is a fellow who doesn't have to have balls pitched over the plate to make base hits. He gets his on a lot of them that are wide and low or high."

BIG SERIES OPENS OCTOBER 9.
CINCINNATI, Ohio, September 21.—August Herrmann, chairman of the national base ball commission, in a statement this morning said that the series probably would start Saturday, October 9. Mr. Herrmann said the championship season in the east does not close until October 7, and it is the custom to give the contending teams a day to get ready for the big event.

Bloomington Wins at Tennis.
Bloomington playground tennis team defeated every other team in the Municipal Playground Tennis League, thereby winning the championship of the city. The Georgetown team played tennis and was a close second with five victories and one defeat. Boys fifteen years and under were permitted to play in these matches. This was a new feature of the work of the playground department, and met with such success and enthusiasm among the younger boys of the city playgrounds that it will be continued as a permanent feature of the summer activities.

Truxtons Get New Coach.
Owing to Mr. Lennox's unexpected return to Philadelphia, he will not be able to coach the Truxton eleven, as was expected. Coach Zimmerman has been selected to fill this vacancy, and it is believed that under his leadership the team will very soon be placed in good condition.
